

October Prayer Points

October 2013 Prayer Points

It's with awe and wonder that I write this today. The previous month has been tough for me and many who are part of this work in the Lord, but the devil is a liar. In our darkest moments the light of the son has continuously guided us. I give all glory to God for allowing us to walk in victory through his son. As we sought the Lord for his heart on prayer in this month of October, his answer was simple "women". Thus this month will be sorely dedicated in prayer and supplication, as well as in our fasting for our women. I believe when God moves in the lives of women, the lives of men will ultimately be touched too. A mother's heart moved (her sons and husband will be moved) , a sister's heart moved (her brothers will be moved), a girl or woman's heart moved (the men and boys around will undoubtedly be affected). Nations will be saved when a heart of an Esther is touched, a world will be saved when a heart of a Mary is touched, a Hannah, an Elizabeth, a Ruth, a Naomi. I believe God is about to raise a new breed of fine women in this month. God is about to revive and renew our women, some on the wrong paths who have lost their way will be brought back to His way. I'll delay you no longer.

Prayer:

Dear Lord Jesus

We are obedient to your lead to pray for women this month, and we believe and know beyond doubt that you will indeed make a way for them. Father may your will be done in their lives. By faith I see a new breed of women rising, a see a new breed of mothers, daughters, and sisters taking their place in their homes, in their relationships, in their families and in their nations. I see your glory being evident through them in your name I declare these things as though they are...and indeed they shall become!!
