

September Prayer Points 2013

September 2013

It has been another great month in service of the Lord of lords. I am glad to have seen Him pilot a new platform of ministry in the form of our daily declarations which have been a blessing to me and many others, through our Facebook page, our Whatsapp group and on our Instapray account. Many thanks to all who have allowed the Lord to use them in this project, and those who continue to sow their time in sharing our ministry with those in their sphere of influence and beyond. Every seed that is sown in the Lord is a guarantee bumper harvest. I assure you, you will reap in due season.

Our Love prayers in August have touched the hearts of the Lord, and he is doing a mighty work in our interpersonal relationships. Expect a miracle if you have not already experienced it. This month the Lord has led us to pray for restoration, as a follow up on our prayer points on love and our prayer points on the 21st, which is our monthly day of fasting. I am believing God for restoration of nations, I do not know what you are believing for but, I am here to assure you, there's nothing too hard for the Lord. Neither is there a case too small to be brought before the King of kings.

Let us pray:

Gracious and Mighty God. The maker of the heavens, the earth and all else that exists within and beyond these. We give you honour and thanks for it is by your grace that we have come thus far. Father you see all that is broken within, around and outside of us. Lord we call on you to restore us as we pray this month. I pray for a restoration of marriages, a restoration of nations, a restoration of lives, and a restoration of hope. I pray for financial, mental, emotional and physical restoration in the name of Jesus. Lord I declare that anything that you have said is ours will be restored to us in the name of Jesus. Every hand that has been stretched to take away from us, will be stretched to restore to us sevenfold in Jesus' name. Amen!
